

CENTER TO CHAMPION NURSING
IN AMERICA®

An initiative of AARP, the AARP Foundation and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the Center to Champion Nursing in America® works to:

- Build a 21st-century nursing workforce with the skills and knowledge Americans need.
- Strengthen and build our nation's educational pathways to prepare the nursing workforce of the future.
- Increase the number and diversity of nurses entering and remaining in the profession.
- Remove barriers that limit nurses' ability to provide the health care consumers need.
- Increase the influence of nurses in high levels of health care, policy, business and community decision making.

The Center to Champion Nursing in America works to ensure all Americans have access to a highly skilled nurse when and where they need one.

To learn more and get involved, visit championnursing.org.

The Center to Champion Nursing in America | An initiative of AARP, the AARP Foundation and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation | 601 E St. NW | Washington, DC 20049 | championnursing.org | 202-434-3920 | championnursing@aarp.org

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation