

N5341 OSCE Faculty Evaluation
Spring 2011
Case L: Jeff Griffin
Contact Dermatitis

Student Name	Date	Faculty

Coding Scale:	Not Done	Needs Improve	Done Well
	0	0.5	1
Part One: Communication with pt. Total points possible: 10
Introduce him/herself as a student
Interview flows smoothly and comfortably
Used broad ,open-ended questions
Obtained history in an organized manner
Used summary statements to validate the patient's chief complaint and history
Used little to no medical jargon
Listened without interrupting
Did not 'rush' patient when patient was presenting information
Used non-verbal communication to develop rapport
Demonstrate empathy for patient concerns
Total points earned for this section:
Part Two: History-Taking Total points possible: 30
This is an episodic visit necessitating a focused history.
Did the student determine:	0	1	2
Chief complaint in the patient's own words
Current medications
Presence of medication allergies
Past Medical History
Determine use of new chemical substance i.e. soap, detergent, lotion, etc
Determine possible contact with environmental substances i.e. poison ivy, poison oak
Did the student specifically ask the patient:
Location, quality, severity, timing, context (pertinent positives and negatives)
What makes symptoms better
What makes symptoms worse
Whether any other associated symptoms exist
What they have done to treat symptoms themselves
If patient has ever had these symptoms before
Social History
Use of alcohol, how much, how often
Use of tobacco, how much, how often
Family History
Mother, father, siblings
Total points earned for this section:
Part Three: Review of Systems Total points possible: 14
This is an episodic visit necessitating a focused ROS	0	1	2
Constitutional/General
HEENT
Respiratory

Cardiovascular
Gastrointestinal
Neuro
Skin
Total points earned for this section:
Part Four: Physical Exam Components Total points possible: 21
This is an episodic visit necessitating a focused PE	0	1.5	3
Wash hands prior to PE
Examine mouth/throat
Inspect skin in general to make sure no other areas are affected.
Auscultate abdomen
Auscultate heart
Auscultate lungs in all 4 quadrants
Inspect skin in area of rash
Total points earned for this section:
Part 5: Treatment Plan Total points possible: 15
	0	1.5	3
Prescriptions: Oral antihistamine, topical cream such as Benadryl Oral corticosteroids are contraindicated due to patient's diabetes.
Comfort measures: Colloidal oatmeal baths Cool compress to area
Education: Avoid scratching due to potential for secondary bacterial infection
Counsel regarding avoidance of irritating substance (new detergent)
Education: Counsel regarding follow-up
Total points earned for this section:

Part 6: Summary Total points possible: 10
		0	1	2
Demonstrated the ability to elicit a focused medical history.
Demonstrated the ability to conduct a focused physical exam.
Demonstrated the appropriate use of diagnostic tests in making diagnostic and treatment decisions.
Demonstrated the ability to formulate accurate diagnoses and treatment plans in accordance with treatment guidelines
Demonstrated the ability to perform patient teaching.
Total points earned for this section:

Feedback to student regarding:

History

Physical Exam

Treatment plan

Overall